TAGANROG AIRFRAME PLANT NO 49/86, TAGANROG, USSR

Taganrog Airframe Plant No 49/86 (BE No [redacted] Taganrog Airframe Plant Dimitrov 86) is located at 47-12-00N 38-52-15E in the southwestern suburbs of Taganrog, USSR. The plant is adjacent to Taganrog Airfield (BE No [redacted] and Taganrog Seaplane Base (BE [redacted] and is served by both road and rail (Figure 1).

When first observed on KEYHOLE photography of [redacted] the plant contained approximately 1,292,150 square feet of floorspace. A comparison of that photography with the most recent KEYHOLE photography from [redacted] (Figure 2), reveals several additions. These additions consist of a final assembly hall under construction (item 1, Figure 3 and Table 1), an unidentified building under construction (item 14), and the completion of a repair hangar (item 15) at the adjacent Taganrog Seaplane Base. The construction of the repair building could not be determined at that time. The present floorspace of the airframe plant is approximately 1,637,000 square feet, a total which includes the floorspace of the new final assembly hall under construction and the new repair hangar.
